Présentation de l'éditeur

One of the most critically acclaimed and influential artists working today, Anselm Kiefer (b1945) has played a major role in shaping the landscape of post-war German and, indeed, international art. Kiefer's vision encompasses philosophy, history, literature, politics and compelling moral issues ranging from intimate books that explore German identity to monumental public sculpture installations. Conceptually, Kiefer urges the viewer to challenge received narratives about war, identity, religion, morality, memory and history. Visually, his art is suffused with a sense of epic melancholy. His paintings exalt physical tactility, incorporating such organic matter as straw, sand and Icad, to become elemental presences. Kiefer's longstanding leitmotifs have included the earth, the stars, architecture and alchemical symbols that evoke themes of devastation, metamorphosis and renewal. Biographie de l'auteur

Matthew Biro has engaged with the art of Anselm Kiefer for over two decades. Building on several visits to Kiefer's studios in France, this volume presents the author's most up-to-date research on the émigré German artist. Biro is Professor of Modern and Contemporary Art and Chair of the Department of the History of Art at the University of Michigan. An expert in twentieth-century art, he is the author of Anselm Kiefer and the Philosophy of Martin Heidegger (1998), and has also published in Art History and Artforum.
