Revue de presse

This is a stupendous work. Its range historical, geographical, intellectual is breathtaking, and it combines presentation of the highest quality with scholarship of the highest order. --The Royal Society For Asian Affairs

'Christoph Baumer's fine book should take its place at once as much the best available general history of the Church of the East, from its beginnings to the present day. It is especially strong on the expansion of the Church in Central and East Asia, making excellent use of recent finds. Throughout it is splendidly illustrated by photographs, many of which were taken during the author's own extensive travels.' --Sebastian Brock, formerly Reader in Syriac Studies, University of Oxford Présentation de l'éditeur

The so-called 'Nestorian' Church (officially known as the Apostolic Assyrian Church of the East, with its See in Baghdad) was one of the most significant Christian communities to develop east of the Roman Empire. In its heyday the Church had 8 million adh Biographie de l'auteur
